

Langham Village School Newsletter December 2021

A place for fun, creativity, friendship, ambition and discovery

Christmas Nativity Play

This year our Nativity is called 'Don't be Afraid'

We are inviting you to a 'Premier Evening' at school and then it will be available to watch on our website.

We have given the children their parts and provided you with costume requirements. If there are short delays in the arrival of parts of the costumes please don't worry. We will start filming in the week beginning the 6th December.

Thank you for your support

Christmas Cards

The post box for children's cards will be available from the 1st of December for cards to be sent within school.

Children in Need

Thank you from School Council for raising an amazing total of: £294

The teddies had a lovely day in school!
